

Maryland
Law Links
Internship
2009

In a year marred by recession, layoffs, and lean budgets, Baltimore City law firms and agencies shine through in support of Law Links.

15 years and counting

Fifteen years after the inception of Baltimore City Law Links, 679 interns have donned the "Blue Blazer" and navigated their way through professional internships. At its largest, Baltimore City Law Links placed fifty-five (yes—55!) interns in one summer. 2009 is the smallest group to date, but at its core is a very dedicated group of law firms and legal agencies.

We are humbled by their commitment, fortified by their level of involvement, and immensely thankful for their continued willingness to invest in our youth.

On behalf of our staff, and our interns, thank you to firms, agencies, funders, and contributors.

Corey Victor Bailey!!!!

Law Links Interns and Summer Center for Law & Government students rub elbows with Chief Judge Ben Clyburn of the Maryland District Court. Judge Clyburn dialogues with students about issues such as first amendment freedoms, fourth amendment search and seizure protections, and life lessons he has learned along his career path. The key to finding success along the way, he advises is being prepared each day.

Malik Mickens challenges Judge Ben Clyburn regarding school policies on search and seizure.

You're a judge...make your decision...guilty or innocent???

Your guiding principal is to make the right choices each day for they lead you to your future.

Judge Ben Clyburn employs a bit of the Socratic method with students.

"Learn as if you were to live forever."

-Gandhi

*The Guy in the Glass,
Dale Wimbrow*

*When you get what you want in your struggle for pelf,
And the world makes you King for a day,
Then go to the mirror and look at yourself,
And see what that guy has to say.*

*For it isn't your Father, or Mother, or Wife,
Who judgment upon you must pass.
The feller whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the guy staring back from the glass.*

*He's the feller to please, never mind all the rest,
For he's with you clear up to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the guy in the glass is your friend.*

*You may be like Jack Homer and chisel a plum,
and you think you're a wonderful guy,
but the man in the glass says you're only a bum,
if you can't look him straight in the eye.*

*You can fool the whole world down the pathway of years,
And get pats on the back as you pass,
But your final reward will be heartaches and tears
If you've cheated the guy in the glass.*

-As quoted by Chief Judge Robert M. Bell
