Law Links
Internship
2009

In a year marred by recession, layoffs, and lean budgets, Baltimore City law firms and agencies shine through in support of Law Links.

15 years and count-

Fifteen years after the inception of Baltimore City Law Links, 679 interns have donned the “Blue Blazer” and navigated their way through professional internships. At its largest, Baltimore City Law Links placed fifty-five (yes—55!) interns in one summer. 2009 is the smallest group to date, but at its core is a very dedicated group of law firms and legal agencies.

We are humbled by their commitment, fortified by their level of involvement, and immensely thankful for their continued willingness to invest in our youth.

The Guy in the Glass,
Dale Wimbrow

When you get what you want in your struggle for pelf,
And the world makes you King for a day,
Then go to the mirror and look at yourself,
And see what that guy has to say.

For it isn't your Father, or Mother, or Wife,
Who judgment upon you must pass.
The feller whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the guy staring back from the glass.

He's the feller to please, never mind all the rest,
For he's with you clear up to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the guy in the glass is your friend.

You may be like Jack Homer and chisel a plum,
and you think you're a wonderful guy,
but the man in the glass says you're only a bum,
if you can't look him straight in the eye.

You can fool the whole world down the pathway of years,
And get pats on the back as you pass,
