As a MY Baltimore City Teen Court volunteer, you will be expected to serve in all courtroom roles (Jury, Clerk, and Bailiff) once trained in that position. All volunteers will begin their volunteer experience as a member of the jury.

The MY Baltimore City Teen Court Code of Conduct (below) is strictly enforced. Please review prior to completing your application. Please do not submit an application if you are not prepared to fully comply with the code of conduct.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

Behavior

All teens participating in the program are expected to display appropriate behaviors at all times. Participants are expected to be courteous and respectful, maintain an acceptable demeanor and refrain from the use of obscene language or gestures. There is to be no eating, drinking, or gum chewing in the courtroom. Smoking in the building is strictly prohibited. Running in the hallways, or wandering through the building is not permitted. During proceedings, participants are expected to pay attention, refrain from private conversations and avoid making loud noise. Deviation from the expected norms of the program will not be tolerated and repeated infractions will result in dismissal from the program.

Dress

All participants are expected to be appropriately attired. Males should wear pants and collared shirts or sweaters. Females should wear pants or skirts with blouses or sweaters. Shoes and socks are required and good grooming and hygiene is expected.

Protocol

Participants should login via zoom between 4:45-5:00 p.m. and sign in with a MY Teen Court staff member. Participants will follow the directions of the staff and use good judgment in determining acceptable behavior. While in court proceedings, participants will address others by their appropriate title and surname, for example, Billy Smith is to be addressed as “Mr. Smith” not “Robert”. Always address the judge as “Your Honor”. Once the hearing has begun, do not leave the courtroom. There will be no talking or laughing during hearings. You should not display feelings through facial expressions, nodding or shaking of heads, or other conduct that might indicate personal feelings or opinions about what is happening during the proceedings. Finally, all questions and concerns should be directed to an adult in the courtroom or a staff member.

I affirm that the above information provided is true and correct.
